

PRESS RELEASE

Bayugan City Embraces Rehistro Bulilit Campaign for Inclusive National ID Registration

Date of Release: 30 September 2024

Reference No. 2024-052

Registration Center Supervisor Joel N. Pinggoy led the Rehistro Bulilit Campaign at the Daycare Center in Barangay San Isidro's Child Development Center, Bayugan City, Agusan del Sur, on September 26, 2024, with the assistance from Daycare Teacher Ma'am Nida A. Bacus.

The Philippine Statistics Authority (PSA) recently carried out its Rehistro Bulilit Campaign in Barangay San Isidro, Bayugan City, Agusan del Sur, offering National ID registration services to young children in the community. On September 26, the event took place at the Child Development Center, where Registration Center Supervisor Joel N. Pinggoy, with the assistance of Daycare Teacher Ma'am Nida A. Bacus, successfully facilitated the registration of 17 children under the age of five.

Alongside the registration process, the team organized interactive games to engage the children, helping them feel at ease and mentally prepared. These activities fostered a fun and welcoming environment, ensuring a positive registration experience for the young participants.

The Rehistro Bulilit Campaign highlights the PSA's commitment to making National ID registration accessible to all Filipinos, regardless of age or location. By reaching out to remote communities, the campaign underscores the importance of inclusivity in government services and empowers even the youngest members of society.

DEMETRIO T. DEJOLDE, JR.
Chief Statistical Specialist

