PSA Agusan del Sur Launches the Celebration of the 35th National Statistics Month

Date of Release: 30 September 2024
Reference No. 2024-053

PSA Agusan del Sur spearheaded a short trivia quiz in celebration of the 35th National Statistics Month during the flag-raising ceremony on September 30, 2024 with the employees of the Provincial Government.

In celebration of the 35th National Statistics Month, the Philippine Statistics Authority (PSA) Agusan del Sur hosted an engaging trivia quiz during the flag ceremony at the Provincial Government. This event aimed to enlighten the public about the significance of the NSM in shaping effective policies and programs for national development. Participants, including government employees and officials, actively engaged with trivia questions that highlighted key information related to the proclamation of October as the official month of celebration. This initiative not only fostered a spirit of learning and camaraderie among attendees but also strengthened community bonds.

As a gesture of appreciation, tokens were awarded to participants, further motivating future involvement in statistical initiatives. The PSA's commitment to promoting the importance of accurate and timely statistics was clearly demonstrated, showcasing how data underpins critical decision-making processes. The trivia quiz emerged as both an educational and entertaining platform, effectively honoring the month dedicated to statistics while emphasizing the government's role in cultivating a data-informed society.
