Date of Release: 23 September 2024

Reference No. 2024-049

The registration team, joined by parents and the daycare teacher, during the successful 'Rehistro Bulilit' campaign held at the Social Hall of Barangay Mahayahay, San Luis, Agusan del Sur, on September 19, 2024.

23 September 2024 – Agusan del Sur. The Rehistro Bulilit Campaign successfully reached the remote areas of Barangay Mahayahay in San Luis, Agusan del Sur on September 19, bringing essential National ID registration services to the community's youngest residents. In coordination with Barangay officials and the local daycare worker, the registration team set up at the Barangay Social Hall, ensuring that children aged 1 to 4 had easy access to the registration process.

The campaign resulted in the successful registration of 44 children, making significant strides in improving access to vital government services for families in these remote areas. The initiative aimed to promote inclusivity by ensuring that even the most underserved communities can participate in the National ID system.
